

Metropolitan Chorale Presents the Creative Impulse

Protest. Resist. Persist.

Songs born from struggle have broken barriers and united people the world over. With repertoire from the Holocaust, the Baltic Singing Revolution, the Civil Rights Movement, and other periods of unrest from around the globe, the Metropolitan Chorale explores music as an agent of change.

There will be opportunities for audience participation

March 10 • 3:00 pm
All Saints Parish
Brookline

Lisa Graham
Music Director

Narrated by WGBH's
Margery Eagan & Jim Braude

$35 General Admission • $45 Preferred Seating $30 Seniors • Student rush with ID – Day of – $10 • FREE Tickets available as part of the EBT Card to Culture program See website for details

tickets at metropolitanchorale.org